Privacy Policy

J.N.Taylor & Co Ltd ABN 61 007 879 696 recognises the importance of privacy issues and complies with the provisions of the Privacy Act.

General Information

We will collect some personal information from you, mainly relating to contact details and information requested so that we are then able to provide you with the correct information and addressing any feedback or queries you may have.

We will not disclose this information to any third party, unless it is requested to do so by relevant law enforcement agencies.

When you visit our website, certain statistics are provided relating to time, date, server address and type of internet browser used but none of this contains any personal information.

We will assume you consent to the management of your personal information in the manner specified in this Privacy Policy, unless you inform us to the contrary.

Employment Opportunities

In addition to the above, information sent to us where you are expressing an interest in a position available, will include information about you, such as your name, contact details, skills, qualifications, nationality, languages spoken, professional association memberships or accreditations, interests and your employment history and past responsibilities. We may also collect this and other types of personal information, such as references and employment objectives during the course of dealing with you, for example if you are considered for a particular position.

Contact Us

If you have a complaint about the way your personal information has been dealt with, then please contact the Finance and Administration Director on 08-9431 9500 or admin@taylormarine.com.au and we will make all reasonable attempts to respond to your complaint or request. If you are unsatisfied with the outcome, you may refer to the Office of Federal Privacy Commissioner at www.privacy.gov.au or 1300 363 992.
